

Katie B. Jackson Plaza

400 N 50th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139

Katie B. Jackson Plaza features many of the amenities an older adult would ask for. The 59-unit older adult development employs 24-hour on-site security to go along with private entrances. All units feature cable hookups, ovens and there are laundry facilities on-site.

For the social older adult there is the community room and the gazebo area. And for the chefs there's an on-site grille. A tenant council board exists for those with an added interest in the development's day-to-day operations. Tenants are provided the convenience of off-street parking.
