

Opening Doors to Opportunities Conference

AUGUST 17-20, 2017

The Sheraton Philadelphia - 201 North 17th Street

The conference is dedicated to preparing public housing residents and employees for the changing times we live in. It provides an invaluable and timely opportunity for public housing residents, administrators, and others interested in affordable housing to network together on a national level.

“Opening Doors to Opportunity” will cover topics in three important areas:

- Housing: Creative Utilization of Limited Resources
- Self-Sufficiency: Finding Innovative Options
- Resident Engagement: Maximizing Cooperative Strengths

The conference will also host a fundraiser for PhillySEEDs, Inc., PHA’s nonprofit affiliate, which has awarded over 200 college scholarships to PHA residents on Saturday, August 19th. PhillySEEDs initiatives support the creation of educational, economic and social service opportunities for public housing residents.
