

March 26, 2020

Good Afternoon,

PHA continues to monitor the rapidly evolving COVID-19 pandemic in order to handle the impact to our organization, to ensure the safety of our residents, employees and the public. As we continue to prioritize the health and safety of our staff, clients, and community, PHA has implemented the following operational decisions in keeping with the changes announced by the City of Philadelphia, and guidance provided by the federal, state and local entities, including the CDC, and local health departments:

INFORMATION FOR PHA EMPLOYEES

- Effective Monday, March 16, 2020 at 5PM, ALL PHA offices are closed to the public, and will reopen April 1, 2020. Please note the closure date is now being extended and PHA is scheduled to reopen on Monday, April 6, 2020.
- Effective Wednesday, March 18, 2020, all non-essential/non-emergency employees should remain home. We plan to reopen our offices on Wednesday April 1, 2020. Please note the closure date is now being extended and PHA is scheduled to reopen on Monday, April 6, 2020. Employees should contact their department heads to determine if they are considered an essential and/or emergency employee. Should this date change, we will be sure to update you with new plans.
- Employees who are exhibiting symptoms consistent with COVID-19 (running nose, cough, fever, headaches, diarrhea etc.) should NOT report to work regardless of their status as an essential or emergency employee.
- Essential and/or Emergency employees are expected to report to work as normal. Please note that the list of essential/emergency employees is subject to change and will be reviewed continuously based on the needs of the agency. Essential/emergency employees wishing to “work-from-home” should make such request to their department heads.

INFORMATION FOR PUBLIC HOUSING RESIDENTS

- Evictions
Effective Friday, March 13, 2020, PHA has suspended all evictions for thirty (30) days. PHA has postponed all court appointments where residents have failed to pay rent. Residents are still required to pay rent.
- Hardship Rent Abatement
Residents who have experienced a financial hardship, such as the loss of a job or decrease in hours or pay, are encouraged to apply for a Hardship Waiver of their rent that will be made retroactive from the date of the hardship event.
- Rental Payments
All rent payments are to be dropped off at secure site office mailbox. Rent receipts will be mailed to you once payment is received and processed and such payment will also be reflected in your rent statement.

➤ Late Rent Payment Fee Waiver

Effective Friday, March 20, 2020, PHA will waive all late rent payment fees for March and April 2020.

➤ Recertifications

Effective immediately, all recertification and interim recertification appointments will no longer be conducted in-person. Recertification appointment letters will include the recertification packet that residents will be required to complete, sign and return with the required income and verification documents for their household.

○ Residents can mail or drop of their completed recertification packets at the secure mailbox at their respective management offices. PHA Property Managers will follow-up with residents via telephone if any additional items are needed.

○ An e-mail address (PublicHousing.Answers@pha.phila.gov) was established for residents who have questions while offices are closed. Supervisory staff has access to this e-mail to provide responses.

➤ Enhanced Cleaning

○ Effective Wednesday, March 11, 2020, PHA began the installation of new hand sanitizer dispensers containing hand sanitizers at all senior locations. Installation was completed on March 13, 2020.

○ Effective Wednesday, March 11, 2020, PHA implemented an enhanced weekly deep cleaning procedure at all senior facilities and high-rises, which is expected to continue indefinitely. Notwithstanding this, however, all residents are encouraged to follow CDC guidelines regarding frequently washing their hands with soap and water.

➤ Service Orders

○ Effective Wednesday March 18, 2020, PHA will only conduct emergency service repairs and plans to resume to normal operations on April 6, 2020. However, residents with routine maintenance related issues should continue to call PHA's Call Center at (215) 684-8920.

➤ Meals

○ Beginning Monday, March 23, 2020, PHA will provide free “grab-n-go” breakfasts and lunches at the following six (6) PHA locations, Monday through Friday from 9:00AM to 12:00 PM:

1. Abbottsford Homes Community Center
