

PHA Section 3 Job Bank Procedures For PHA Residents and Qualified Section 3 Non-PHA Residents

Effective August 15, 2014, revised April 30, 2019

INTRODUCTION

PHA provides a "Section 3 Job Bank" for job-seekers who are Section 3 residents¹, whether PHA residents or not, to connect them with certain job opportunities offered by PHA contractors. The Job Bank is not the only way a contractor might find job applicants and PHA does not control which applicants its contractors eventually interview or hire. However, any applicant who enrolls in PHA's Job Bank will be referred to all job opportunities listed on the Job Bank, so long as the applicant is qualified and appropriately responds to contractor interview and/or work expectations if hired.

PHA Section 3 Job Bank hiring opportunities are listed on-line at:

http://www.pha.phila.gov/section3jobs. Once an applicant applies to a job posted on the Job Bank or provides the PHA Section 3 Program with a resume, the applicant will be referred to jobs on the Job Bank for a period of six months.

WHO CAN APPLY ON THE JOB BANK

Any person who qualifies as a Section 3 resident, whether a PHA resident or not (see the attached certification form for requirements), may participate in the Job Bank.

HOW TO APPLY FOR A JOB LISTED IN THE PHA SECTION 3 JOB BANK

To participate in the PHA Job Bank application-forwarding process, applicants must:

- 1) submit a resume; list of trade certifications/union card information; or a completed Job Bank application to PHA; and
- 2) complete and submit to PHA the attached Section 3 Residency Self-Certification Form.

If the applicant is interested in a specific job listed on the PHA Section 3 Job Bank website, the job title and ID must be included with the submission to PHA in an email, note, cover letter or verbally (unless the information is submitted through the website). Otherwise, PHA will simply review the information submitted and determine whether the applicant's skills match any available jobs listed on the Job Bank.

¹ A "Section 3 resident" is: 1) a public housing resident; or 2) a low- or very low-income person residing in the metropolitan area or Non-metropolitan County in which the Section 3 assistance is expended.

Applicants can submit their information in person or by mail, via email, or on-line.

- The address for mailing or drop off is: PHA Workforce Center at VAUX BPHS Section 3 Job Bank Coordinator 2300 W. Master Street, Ste. 317 Philadelphia, PA, 19121
- 2) The address for e-mailing is: Section3@pha.phila.gov.
- 3) If applying on-line, the website is http://www.pha.phila.gov/section3jobs, and applicants can upload their information or use the resume/skills creation application.
- 4) For certain major construction projects, PHA may provide a marked "PHA Section 3 Job Application Drop Box" for applications at the construction site, in an outside location available to the public. Applicants can call PHA (215-684-4318) to see whether a site has a drop box.

PHA PROCESSING OF SUBMISSIONS FOR THE JOB BANK

Applicants who submit all their information (see "How to Apply for a Job Listed in the PHA Section 3 Job Bank," above) will receive a dated confirmation letter from PHA, either through email or letter, telling them that their information was received. All applications will be reviewed by PHA Section 3 Staff within at least five (5) business days. Then, a letter or email will be sent to the applicant if the applicant's skills matched the job sought and the application has been forwarded on to the hiring vendor. All applications will be kept on file by PHA for at least 6 months for future opportunities. Notice will be sent to applicants through email or letter when the 6 month term is ending. If an applicant would like to be referred for an additional 6 months, the applicant must renew their registration to the Job Bank with the PHA Section 3 Program by contacting the office and providing updated contact information and work history, if any.

COMPLIANCE CHECK AND FOLLOW UP

After the job application information is submitted to the employers, follow up calls will be made on a regular basis by the PHA Section 3 Program to check on the status of the application or on the fulfillment of the job opening.

SECTION 3 HUD INCOME LIMITS (Effective 4/15/21)

All residents of public housing developments of the Philadelphia Housing Authority qualify as Section 3 Residents.* Additionally, individuals residing in the City of Philadelphia where Section 3 contracted work is being performed, who meet the income limits set forth below, can also qualify for Section 3 resident status.

Eligibility Guideline Number in Household Very Low Income Low Income
2 individuals	$ 37,800	$ 60,500
3 individuals	$ 42,550	$ 68,050
4 individuals	$ 47,250	$ 75,600
5 individuals	$ 51,050	$ 81,650
6 individuals	$ 54,850	$ 87,700
7 individuals	$ 58,600	$ 93,750
8 individuals	$ 62,400	$ 99,800

* Section 3 is a provision in the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (12 U.S.C. Section 1701u and 24 C.F.R. Section 135). Its purpose is to ensure that economic opportunities, to the greatest extent feasible, are given to low and very low-income persons, particularly to recipients of government housing assistance. Section 3 job opportunities relate to new hiring due to contracts with PHA. Section 3 Residents are PHA residents, or persons who live in the City of Philadelphia who have a household income that is low income or very low income under HUD's income limits.

JOB APPLICANT INFORMATION FOR PHA JOB BANK

The PHA Section 3 Job Bank is a resource that PHA provides for Section 3 residents, whether PHA residents or not, to connect them with Section 3 job opportunities with PHA vendors. It does not replace a vendor's own hiring process, but allows PHA to process and appropriately forward an applicant's information to PHA-contracted vendors who have Section 3 job opportunities. PHA does not control which applicants, if any, its vendors may interview or hire.
